00:07:00 Commissioner Announcements

Chair Speck

COVID-19 Vaccinations — As of April 26th, 490,911 total vaccine doses had been administered in DC of which 363,307 had been to DC residents (<https://coronavirus.dc.gov/data/vaccination>). The number of DC residents fully vaccinated was 20.2%, including 35% of residents in Barnaby Woods (78% of those over 65) — highest neighborhood in the city — and 27% in Chevy Chase (65% of those over 65). (There is no separate data on Hawthorne.) An additional 13.4% of DC residents had been partially vaccinated.

Residents who are unable to leave home to get vaccinated can now call 1-855-363-0333 to register for an at-home COVID-19 vaccination appointment. Additionally, DC residents who are 65 and older are now able to get vaccinated without an appointment at walk-up sites across DC with up to 30 walk-in appointments each day. The closest site for residents in our ANC is the Lamond Recreation Center, Wed-Sat, 9:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.

Additionally, if you'd like to volunteer to go door-to-door to help people register for vaccinations, May 1, 2021, is a Day of Action where you can pick up materials and instructions and locations across the District. The nearest locations are at the Friendship Recreation Center, 4500 Van Ness Street, NW and the Fort Stevens Recreation Center, 3727 Van Buren Street, NW. More information is available at <https://bit.ly/2PntA6i>.

Historic Chevy Chase DC Program — On April 28th at 7:30, HCCDC will hold the first of three Zoom programs to help provide historical perspective and context to the Small Area Planning process that will shape our community's future. This program will be "Re-imagining in Washington, Circa 1900," and will feature author/historian Tom Lewis discussing the McMillian process that essentially shaped the DC of today. There will be two other programs in May and June.

Affordable Housing Webinar — On April 27th at 7:30, Ward3Vision will present "Building Inclusivity in Ward 3: What's in the Affordable Housing Toolbox." Among the speakers will be Ward 3 Councilmember Mary Cheh, Tracy Haden Loh from Brookings Institution, Office of Planning Director Andrew Trueblood, and David Cristeal, retired Arlington County Housing Director. You may register at <https://bit.ly/3ntqevn>.

CCCA Webinar — CCCA will conduct a webinar on "Practical Tips for Earth Month" on April 29, 2021 from 7:00 pm to 8:15 pm. Speakers will include Ted Trabue, Director, DC

Sustainable Energy Utility, Arielle Conti, manager of the RiverSmart Homes Program, Alma Paty is the science coordinator for Murch Elementary School, where she oversees the Murch Green scene, and Shelley Cohen, a renewable energy and energy efficiency expert, who will talk about the environmental and financial benefits of going solar in DC. More information and the link to the meeting is available at the CCCA's website, <https://www.chevychasecitizens.org>.
