Virtual Meeting Procedures: The ANC's meetings are run with a few norms in mind, and we expect everyone to abide by these norms. They promote a civil and respectful discourse.

1. Except when they are recognized to speak, all attendees to the virtual meeting should mute their devices to avoid disruptions from background noises.
2. Meetings will follow the agenda and the times listed there, with any modifications determined by the Co-Chairs.
3. After a presenter completes his or her statement, committee members will have an opportunity to ask their questions or make comments.
4. During meetings, committee members should use the chat function to ask questions or to request to make a comment; they will then be recognized by the Co-Chair.
5. Speakers must limit any statements or questions to the time allotted.
6. Every committee member will have an opportunity to be heard once on an issue before any member is heard twice.
7. We understand that sometimes issues may provoke strong emotions and that these expectations may be forgotten. Part of the Co-Chair's job is to remind you of these norms during the meeting.
8. Comments that are personal attacks, vulgar, or obscene may be ruled out of order by the committee Co-Chairs. Co-Chairs may prohibit conduct or comments that disrupt meetings.
