

19:25:30 From Libby Martin to Everyone:

Yes, a formal request is necessary. Everyone should be receiving the same message at ideally the same time.

19:34:11 From Stuart Miles-McLean to Everyone:

The survey should be very clear about what geographic area it covers, that is, does it address only the Civic Core property, or does it include the area along Connecticut Ave addressed by the SAP, or does it include the entire ANC 3/4G?

19:36:34 From Stuart Miles-McLean to Everyone:

If the survey addresses an area beyond the commercial core of CCDC (i.e., the SAP area), then the survey should ask how far from that area the respondent lives and ask if they live in the ANC 3/4G area.

19:36:36 From Libby Martin to Everyone:

There are probably some glossary items that Ron can lift from the Task Force on Racism Housing Report.

19:37:37 From Stuart Miles-McLean to Everyone:

Those who live along the edge of Rock Creek Park have a VERY different stake in this process than those who live within the SAP area.

19:41:55 From Elizabeth McPike to Everyone:

Totally agree!! Transparency trumps everything else!!

19:42:03 From Stuart Miles-McLean to Everyone:

Reacted to "Totally agree!! Tra..." with 👍

19:44:12 From Elizabeth McPike to Everyone:

Trust requires transparency.

19:44:22 From Stuart Miles-McLean to Everyone:

Reacted to "Trust requires trans..." with 👍

19:45:32 From Jim Feldman to Everyone:

We want people to involve themselves in the give-and-take of a conversation, without being unduly worried that someone will take a snippet of what they say and quote it out of context.

19:49:56 From Stuart Miles-McLean to Everyone:

Zoom crashed and restarted for me and the earlier comments in chat are no longer visible to me. Were the earlier comments in the meeting captured, e.g., my comments about the area covered by the survey?

19:52:52 From Cal to Everyone:

Stuart, the chat content is usually provided when the recording is made available.

19:54:49 From Stuart Miles-McLean to Everyone:

Replying to "Stuart, the chat con..."

Thanks, Cal. I was asking, because my Zoom crashed and then I could only see comments posted after I rejoined.

19:55:46 From Cal to Everyone:

Jim, how do you/we deter folks from taking snippets and quoting them out of context?

19:57:53 From Jim Feldman to Everyone:

If you don't record a conversation, you don't have the problem of quoting snippets out of context. You also allow for give-and-take (i.e., what would you think if . . .? Would it concern you as much if . . . ?) without people feeling that they would be absolutely committing themselves to something on the spot.

20:01:07 From Stuart Miles-McLean to Everyone:

The issue backgrounder must be clear as to the geographic area being discussed -- many concerns flow from that definition (i.e., CCDC Commons, vs SAP area, vs whole ANC 3/4G)

20:02:01 From Elizabeth McPike to Everyone:

Yes, good point, Comm Feldman: One important advantage of a recorded conversation is that no one can misrepresent or take out of context a person or group's point of view.

20:02:42 From Stuart Miles-McLean to Everyone:

Note: some residents living close to the CCDC Commons did not receive the DMPED survey. How common was that?

20:02:52 From Jim Feldman to Everyone:

Replying to "Yes, good point, Com..."

I think you mean Comm Nash.

20:03:27 From Elizabeth McPike to Everyone:

Replying to "Yes, good point, Com..."

Yes, so so sorry!

20:04:27 From Elizabeth McPike to Everyone:

Sorry...in my comment above, I meant Comm Nash, not Feldman.

20:15:39 From Stuart Miles-McLean to Everyone:

Before we all log off, I do want to say I appreciate the time the ANC Reps are taking in an effort to tackle and address these very complex issues, some of which have very long historical tails. There are so many facets to these concerns and at every step there is a need for clear and objective definitions. Meanwhile, the rhetoric being used by some purposefully amplifies wedges being driven between members of the community. Consequently, there is a lot riding on this survey and I appreciate the expertise and professional experience being brought to bear.

20:16:22 From Susan Gigli to Everyone:

Reacted to "Before we all log of..." with 👍

20:19:07 From ANC 3G Chevy Chase to Everyone:

Reacted to "Before we all log of..." with 💙

20:21:08 From Elizabeth McPike to ANC 3G Chevy Chase(Direct Message):

Thank you, Comm Gore, for being emphatic that the community views will be fully, fairly, accurately conveyed. In saying that, it also makes me sad that a survey was not done six months (or more) ago, before everything became so divisive.

20:22:01 From ANC 3G Chevy Chase to Elizabeth McPike(Direct Message):

Thanks Elizabeth. I'm regretful of that too. It was a huge mistake...